day, May-be you will_ un-der-stand me, dear,_ when you hear me say:
way, Af-ter the sweet_things that I have heard,_ here's all I can say:

REFRAIN

Just like the rose-bud must have the dew, just like the stars need the heav-ens of blue,
Just what the wild waves mean to the sea, just what a dog al-ways means to a flea,

p-f

Oh me!_ Oh my!_ That's how much I need you. Just what the honey
Just like the noodles means to the bee, Just what the cream means to cof-fee and tea; Oh me!_ Oh my!_

must have the soup, Just like the chicks need a shel-ter-ing coop;

That's how much I need you. I've got arms, you've got arms, ain't that sweet?

I've got lips, you've got lips, when they meet life's com-plete.

Just like the fried eggs go with the ham, Just like the grav-y de - pends on the lamb;
Just like a cop - per must have a beat, Just like the stew needs po - ta - toes and meat;

Oh me! Oh my! That's how much I need you. you.
